

1.5 acre Market Garden Tour - Cold Spring Organics

Image/Logo

Mon, 10/06/2025 - 16:00

Can you grow 105 varieties of organic produce on 1.5 acres? Do the numbers work?

Join Cold Spring Organics and Farms at Work for an evening exploring organic vegetable production, permaculture principles, regenerative agriculture, community collaborations and protecting threatened species. Whether you're a seasoned grower, new to farming, or a food enthusiast, don't miss this opportunity to connect with local food production and gain practical insights for your journey in agriculture.
